MUR # 5887

My name is David Keating. My address is Club for Growth, 2001 L St. NW, Suite 600, Washington DC 20036.

By this document Club for Growth is filing a complaint under 11 C.F.R 111.4.

The only respondents we are naming in this complaint are the Schwarz for Congress campaign, Republican Mainstreet Partnership, located at 325 7th Street, N.W., Suite 610 Washington, DC 20004 (202-393-4353) and the Republican Mainstreet Partnership PAC ("RMSP PAC"). Any other individuals, candidates, candidate committees, corporations, or organizations mentioned in this complaint or the exhibits are not respondents in our complaint and we request that the Commission not treat them as such.

The Schwarz for Congress campaign repeatedly violated a number of federal election laws and regulations and we request that the Commission immediately sanction the Schwarz for Congress campaign by imposing penalties for their illegal acts.

Violation #1: Congressman Joe Schwarz or through his agents appears to have illegally exercised control over a group that reported "Independent Expenditures," in violation of 2 U.S.C. 431 and 2 U.S.C. 441a and 11 C.F.R. 109. In short, his campaign appears to have illegally coordinated with at least one outside group.

According to a report filed with the Commission on July 28, 2006 the Republican Mainstreet Partnership PAC ("RMSP PAC") purported to run a $65,000 "Independent Expenditure" supporting Schwarz's election campaign. In all, numerous so-called "Independent Expenditures" totaling $91,000 were reported by RMSP PAC. (Exhibit A). However, a news account (see violation #7 below) indicates the violations might reach $470,000.

On the "About Us" portion of the RMSP PAC website the only body listed on its website as exercising control or direction of its activities is its "PAC Advisory Board" (see http://www.mainstreetpac.com/about_us.htm reproduced as Exhibit B). No paid staff members or other type of board are listed.

Indeed, the RMSP PAC indicated in a "Miscellaneous Report to FEC" filed on December 7, 2005 in response to a Commission request for additional information that it had no staff. It would therefore appear then that the PAC Advisory Board must control the PAC's activity or at a minimum provide substantial control or input in its decisions.

As noted by Exhibit B, one of the members of the RMSP PAC Board at the time was Congressman Schwarz.

Clearly a communication could not be independent if the beneficiary of the communication, in this case the Schwarz campaign, exercised some control.

11 C.F.R. 109.21(a) states that "A communication is coordinated with a candidate, an authorized committee, a political party committee, or an agent of any of the foregoing when the communication: (1) Is paid for by a person other than that candidate, authorized committee, political party committee, or agent of any of the foregoing; (2) Satisfies at least one of the content standards in paragraph (c) of this section; and (3) Satisfies at least one of the conduct standards in paragraph (d) of this section."

According to one TV ad run by the RMSP PAC (see Exhibit C, a storyboard prepared by CMAG) and Form 24 filed by the RMSP PAC on July 28, the communication was paid for by RMSP PAC. Therefore, test 1 is met.

One of the content standards is "A public communication that expressly advocates the election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate for Federal office." This standard under test 2 is clearly met as it expressly advocates the defeat of Congressman Schwarz's opponent, Tim Walberg.

Finally, several of the conduct standards under test 3 under 11 C.F.R. 109 also appear to be met. These standards include any one of the following:

(1) Request or suggestion.

(i) The communication is created, produced, or distributed at the request or suggestion of a candidate or an authorized committee, political party committee, or agent of any of the foregoing; or

(ii) The communication is created, produced, or distributed at the suggestion of a person paying for the communication and the candidate, authorized committee, political party committee, or agent of any of the foregoing, assents to the suggestion.

(2) Material involvement. A candidate, an authorized committee, a political party committee, or an agent of any of the foregoing, is materially involved in decisions regarding:

(i) The content of the communication;

(ii) The intended audience for the communication;

(iii) The means or mode of the communication;

(iv) The specific media outlet used for the communication;

(v) The timing or frequency of the communication; or

(vi) The size or prominence of a printed communication, or duration of a communication by means of broadcast, cable, or satellite.

(3) Substantial discussion. The communication is created, produced, or distributed after one or more substantial discussions about the communication between the person paying for the communication, or the employees or agents of the person paying for the communication, and the candidate who is clearly identified in the communication, or his or her authorized committee, or his or her opponent or the opponent's authorized committee, or a political party committee, or an agent of any of the foregoing. A discussion is substantial within the meaning of this paragraph if information about the candidate's or political party committee's campaign plans, projects, activities, or needs is conveyed to a person paying for the communication, and that information is material to the creation, production, or distribution of the communication.

Clearly since Congressman Schwarz serves or served on the RMSP PAC's board at the time, it would appear that he met one or more of the conduct standards above.

Even if he did not explicitly approve these expenditures of the RMSP PAC it defies belief that as a Board member he never provided information about his plans, projects or activities or never had substantial discussions either with another RMSP PAC Board member or who ever exerted control over the RMSP PAC during the campaign.

Indeed it appears that a significant number of RMSP PAC board members publicly endorsed Schwarz and may have been materially involved in the Schwarz campaign in one capacity or another and presumably may have also had direct information on the campaign's plans, projects, activities or needs.

On or about June 20, 2006 as noted by (Exhibit D), the Schwarz campaign listed an in-kind contribution of $865 for "Catering and event supplies" from the Republican Mainstreet Partnership, a corporation. Federal election laws and regulations prohibit corporations from making contributions to campaigns.

We do note that there is a corporation with the name Republican Mainstreet Partnership (RMSP) that purports to be a social welfare group despite its partisan name. The Republican Mainstreet Partnership PAC purports to be completely independent of the Republican Mainstreet Partnership despite the similar name and at least one staff member and officer of the RMSP corporation who appears to contend she makes "volunteer" efforts on behalf of the RMSP PAC.

There is further evidence that the Schwarz campaign and RMSP PAC illegally coordinated because their broadcast advertising failed to include legally required disclaimers (see the discussion under violation #3, violation #4 and violation #5). This rather striking similarity in ignoring disclaimer requirements raises the question as to whether similar people created, reviewed or approved the ads for both campaigns.

The Commission should take action to impose a penalty for these violations and to guard against future violations.

Violation #2: The Schwarz for Congress campaign therefore appears to have accepted contributions far beyond the legal limit from the RMSP PAC. In addition to the possible in-kind contribution of $865 reported as a donation from the RMSP cited above that may instead be a donation from the RMSP PAC, the RMSP PAC made cash donations totaling $2,000, first with a $1,000 donation on June 13, 2005 and then again on July 19, 2005. When combined with the $91,000 in contributions from in-kind donations that appear to have been misreported as independent expenditures, the Schwarz campaign appears to have accepted $93,865 in donations from the RMSP PAC, far beyond the legal limit of $5,000 per election.

Violation #3: Congressman Joe Schwarz's TV ad "Schwarz Leads" is illegal since it failed to include the proper spoken and written disclaimers required under 2 U.S.C 441d and 11 C.F.R 110.11.

The ad gave Congressman Schwarz an unfair and illegal advantage over his challenger as it substituted video images meant to further his campaign instead of providing the legally required video disclaimer.

CMAG, a respected ad monitoring service relied upon by the Commission in its recent coordination regulations, has published a storyboard of this illegal advertisement, which is attached as Exhibit E.

Paragraph (c)(3) of this regulation governs spoken disclaimers as follows:

A communication transmitted through television or through any broadcast, cable, or satellite transmission, must include a statement that identifies the candidate and states that he or she has approved the communication. The candidate shall convey the statement either: (A) Through an unobscured, fullscreen view of himself or herself making the statement, or (B) Through a voice-over by himself or herself, accompanied by a clearly identifiable photographic or similar image of the candidate. A photographic or similar image of the candidate shall be considered clearly identified if it is at least eighty (80) percent of the vertical screen height.

The ad, which began running July 31, 2006, did not contain the required fullscreen view of the candidate or a clearly identifiable image of the candidate.

Paragraph (c)(3)(iii) of this regulation provides additional requirements regarding a written disclaimer as follows:

A communication transmitted through television or through any broadcast, cable, or satellite transmission, must also include a similar statement [that he or she has approved the communication] that must appear in clearly readable writing at the end of the television communication.

As clearly shown in the storyboard, the advertisement also contained no written disclaimer indicating whether Schwarz has "approved this communication."

The Schwarz campaign was informed that their advertising disclaimers were illegal, but the campaign failed to correct their violations.

Former Federal Election Commission chairman Bradley A. Smith wrote a letter to stations that were broadcasting the advertisement detailing the violations in the Schwarz ads. According to Mr. Smith, he sent a copy of the letter to the Schwarz campaign and he was also informed by at least one of the stations that they had made an inquiry to the campaign about the illegal advertisement.

According to a news account the Walberg for Congress campaign filed a complaint against the Schwarz campaign noting other illegal advertisements. Presumably a complaint was filed and is in the Commission's files.

Clearly the Schwarz campaign had been put on notice at least twice that their advertising was blatantly illegal, yet the campaign refused to correct the defects according to information in CMAG reports. CMAG indicates no changes were made to any Schwarz television ads in the Grand Rapids media market.

We have also enclosed CMAG storyboards of other Schwarz advertisements (Exhibit F) that appear to be illegal for various reasons. We urge the Commission to review all ads, not just these attached, run by the Schwarz campaign to determine if additional violations occurred.

Violation #4. Schwarz benefited from an illegal radio ad by RMSP PAC that failed to include proper disclaimers.

As noted in Exhibit A, the RMSP PAC reported an independent expenditure for at least one radio ad. The RMSP PAC made available on its website one of the radio ads it claimed to air. This radio ad is attached as Exhibit G on a CD-ROM disk. We assume this is the ad that in fact did air on radio stations in the district.

The ad did not contain several of the required disclaimers. This illegal ad unfairly benefited Mr. Schwarz by cutting out precious advertising time spent on the legally-mandated disclaimer and substituting additional express advocacy on behalf of the Schwarz campaign.

Paragraph (c)(4) of 11 C.F.R. 110.11 requires that "A communication transmitted through radio or television or through any broadcast, cable, or satellite transmission, must include the following audio statement, 'XXX is responsible for the content of this advertising,' spoken clearly, with the blank to be filled in with the name of the political committee or other person paying for the communication, and the name of the connected organization, if any, of the payor unless the name of the connected organization is already provided in the 'XXX is responsible' statement."

The radio ad never stated that the "RMSP PAC is responsible for the content of this advertising."

Furthermore, paragraph (b)(3) of 11 C.F.R. 110.11 states that "If the communication, including any solicitation, is not authorized by a candidate, authorized committee of a candidate, or an agent of either of the foregoing, the disclaimer must clearly state the full name and permanent street address, telephone number, or World Wide Web address of the person who paid for the communication, and that the communication is not authorized by any candidate or candidate's committee."

The ad did not provide all of this required information. A different disclaimer may be required if the Commission finds the ad constituted a coordinated communication.

Furthermore, there is evidence that RMSP PAC may have failed to report expenditures or include required disclaimers on other communications. Also attached as part of Exhibit G is a US Newswire press release, located at <http://releases.usnewswire.com/GetRelease.asp?id=70271>, which has no disclaimer. We also did not find a reported expenditure for this or other press releases that may have been distributed.

Since none of the RMSP PAC communications we could locate have the proper disclaimers, the Commission should examine all communications by RMSP PAC in support of Schwarz, including other radio ads that may have aired, as well as "robocalls" and printed material reported in Exhibit A.

Violation #5. Schwarz benefited from an illegal TV ad by RMSP PAC that failed to include the proper disclaimer.

The TV ad by the RMSP PAC fails to include the proper written disclaimer. Paragraph (c)(4)(iii) of 11 C.F.R. 110.11 states "A communication transmitted through television or through any broadcast, cable, or satellite transmission, must also include a . . . statement [that XXX is responsible for the content of this advertising] that must appear in clearly readable writing at the end of the communication." The TV ad in question has the statement at the beginning of the communication, which is illegal under the regulations. Again, the TV ad is reprinted as Exhibit C.

Violation #6: The Schwarz campaign and RMSP PAC failed to file reports of contributions bundled through the RMSP PAC in violation of 11 C.F.R. 110.6(c)(2).

The Schwarz campaign is required to identify any contribution in excess of $200 collected by RMSP PAC or any other conduit.

The Schwarz campaign appears to have listed no such contributions. The RMSP PAC appears to have listed no such contributions.

However, a news account in The Hill newspaper and reprinted on the RMSP PAC website (attached as Exhibit H) reported that the RMSP PAC "raised more than $100,000 earlier this year for [various candidates are listed, including] ... Joe Schwarz (Mich.)." Clearly the RMSP PAC claimed public credit for raising substantial sums for the Schwarz campaign.

Furthermore, the RMSP PAC website made explicit solicitations for donations to the Schwarz campaign at <http://www.mainstreetpac.com/schwarz.htm> and <http://www.mainstreetpac.com/contribute.htm>. (Copies of these pages are attached as Exhibit I.)

The RMSP PAC website stated that "The Main Street PAC welcomes financial contributions from individuals. In addition, we support our endorsed candidates by collecting contributions from individuals like you... and passing them along directly to each candidate!"

With the aggressive website solicitations by RMSP PAC and the news account of the PAC raising perhaps tens of thousands of dollars for Schwarz, one would expect that some contributions that have exceeded the amount of $200 must have been sent by the RMSP PAC to Schwarz.

Furthermore, the RMSP PAC's website disclaimer stated the solicitations were independent expenditures, yet appears to have not reported any costs for its independent expenditure Internet communications on behalf of Schwarz. Similarly, no in-kind contributions are reported.

Violation #7: A news article published Aug 3, 2006 and written by Katherine Hutt Scott for the Gannett News Service, reported that "The Republican Main Street Partnership, which represents 48 members of Congress and four governors, has spent $470,000 to buy broadcast advertising and send mailings that support Schwarz, executive director Sarah Chamberlain Resnick said in an interview."

However, the RMSP does not have a separate segregated fund. It also does not appear to be a qualified nonprofit corporation and has not filed any notice of $470,000 of independent expenditures with the Commission. Therefore it would appear that the RMSP illegally spent $470,000 of corporate funds in an attempt to elect Schwarz.

Such expenditures, whether for express advocacy or not, if conducted by the RMSP, would also not be independent for the same reasons outlined above in violation #1 because Joe Schwarz is an "elected member" of the RMSP. Also RMSP and RMSP PAC share at least 7 board members and at least one officer. (See Exhibit J for a list of "board members" (<http://www.republicanmainstreet.org/board.htm>) and "elected members" (<http://www.republicanmainstreet.org/members.htm>). According to the RMSP website, "The Partnership is comprised of party members and public officials."

If the article is referring to independent expenditures of the RMSP PAC, then it appears the reports of the RMSP PAC have omitted over $370,000 of independent expenditures.

There may well be other affiliates of the RMSP or RMSP PAC known to Resnick that spent money to elect Schwarz. The Commission must find out what other affiliates may exist and if such expenditures by other affiliates were made independently of the Schwarz campaign or not.

In conclusion, the Schwarz campaign and what appear to be his agents have committed numerous violations of the election law.

We have found numerous other apparent or possible violations by the Schwarz campaign as well as other supporters of Schwarz and may submit additional complaints if we have the time to do so in the future.

We strongly urge the Commission to penalize these violations and take action to prevent further violations.

The above information is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief.

(Announcer): Republican Main Street Partnership PAC is responsible for the contents of this advertising.

You can't count on Tim Walberg. When John Engler and Republicans needed him in Lansing to work on the state budget, Tim Walberg was in Paris.

Paris. No wonder his colleagues voted him one of the worst legislators in Lansing. If Republicans can't count on Tim Walberg, can you?

Vote no on Tim Walberg on Tuesday, August 8th.

Republican Main Street Partnership Urges Michigan Voters to Say No to Tim Walberg

8/4/2008 9:00:00 AM

To: State Desk

Contact: Sarah Chamberlain Resnick of Republican Main Street Partnership, 202-682-3143

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4 /U.S. Newswire/ - With just days left before the Aug. 8 Michigan Republican primary, the Republican Main Street Partnership (RMSP) PAC is urging voters to say no to Tim Walberg. "Tim Walberg's dismal legislative record, radical agenda, and deceptive campaign tactics make him the wrong choice for Republicans in Michigan's 7th," said Sarah Chamberlain Resnick, head of the RMSP PAC. "Walberg's campaign is working hard to hide his own legislative record and radical agenda, while misleading voters about Congressman Joe Schwarz's record of accomplishment. On Tuesday, voters will have the chance to go to the polls and reject Tim Walberg and his deceptive and divisive campaign tactics."

The Republican Main Street Partnership PAC is mounting an aggressive television, radio and ground campaign to educate voters about Walberg's record, his agenda, and the people pulling the strings behind his ill-conceived candidacy.

Tim Walberg's campaign against incumbent Republican Congressman Joe Schwarz is relying heavily on out-of-state contributions from the Club for Growth. "Walberg's campaign tactics of deception and division aren't surprising, they are the hallmarks of a Club for Growth-backed campaign," continued Resnick.

"The Club for Growth claims it supports pro-growth, limited government candidates, but once again their rhetoric doesn't match up with the reality on the ground," said Resnick. "The Walberg campaign isn't about fiscal ideology, it's a campaign based on deceiving voters about Congressman Schwarz's record while trying to divide the electorate over hot button social issues."

The Club for Growth is pouring hundreds of thousands of dollars into Walberg's challenge to Rep. Schwarz, forcing Republicans to divert limited financial resources away from protecting the Republican majority. "Once again the Club for Growth is a willing participant in Nancy Pelosi's effort to undermine the Republican majority in the House. The Club for Growth ought to be joining Main Street and Republican organizations across the country in working to defend our legislative majorities," continued Resnick. "Unfortunately, the Club doesn't care about protecting our majorities; instead they are obsessed with collecting political scalps."

"Main Street will continue to work tirelessly to protect and expand Republican majorities in both the House and Senate. We are confident that on Tuesday the voters in Michigan will reject Tim Walberg and the Club for Growth," concluded Resnick.

THE HILL Main Street raises $100,000

By Jonathan E. Kaplan

The Republican Main Street Partnership raised more than $100,000 last week for three centrist GOP lawmakers.

The money comes as centrist Republicans have thwarted the leadership's budget cuts and its plans to extend tax cuts.

The money will benefit Reps. Jim Kolbe (R-Ariz.), Jeb Bradley (N.H.) and Heather Wilson (R-N.M.), said Ron Tailey, the group's spokesman.

Tailey said the group also raised more than $100,000 earlier this year for GOP Reps. Jim Gerlach (Pa.), Rob Simmons (Conn.), Joe Schwarz (Mich.) and Charlie Dent (Pa.).

JOHN "JOE" SCHWARZ, U.S. HOUSE, MI-7

Joe Schwarz is one of us. He's a common sense, hard working leader who has served his country, his state and his community. He not only understands the issues we face, he has been a leader in proposing solutions. From education, to health care, to jobs, Joe Schwarz is the leader we need in Congress.

As a naval officer in Vietnam, he served his country with distinction. Then as a CIA operative, he helped protect and defend us from the spread of Communism. He has the knowledge and the passion to defend us now as a member of Congress. Never before has this type of experience been more important to defend us from the evil of terrorism.

As a surgeon, Joe has been in the life saving business. His medical practice has been built around helping people through difficult times. A dedicated physician, Joe has developed a reputation for quality and compassionate care. As health care continues to be a top national issue, nobody is better prepared to represent us in this debate.

As Mayor of Battle Creek and a City

Commissioner, Joe served his community. With the Republican values of supporting local control, Joe helped Battle Creek thrive. He understands the importance of local
